

Experience Costa Rica and Service Learning

through GSW's International Studies UNIV 4000 Class

If you would like to

TRAVEL TO COSTA RICA, EXPERIENCE THE RAIN FOREST,

and

LEARN ABOUT ANOTHER CULTURE,

then

TAKE UNIV 4000!

In the Spring Semester, UNIV 4000 will provide a service learning experience for 15 students selected through application.

Taught by Drs. Tom Weiland, Joe Johnson, and Peggy Ellington, the course will focus on Costa Rica and will culminate with travel to Costa Rica from May 10-20 to work on a Habitat for Humanity project and to see the rainforest, active volcanoes, and other sights. The majority of travel expenses will be paid by the University. Each student will be asked to raise $200 through various means as part of the course.

UNIV 4000 is a 3-credit course, which will meet MWF (Time:TBA) during Spring 2004. You will study about Costa Rica in preparation for the trip in May. Students will be expected to become knowledgeable about various aspects of Costa Rican culture and will have the opportunity to study specific areas related to their major.

For more information, contact Dr. Tom Weiland (ext 2327), Dr. Joe Johnson (ext 2191), or Dr. Peggy Ellington (ext 2198).

Admission is by application only. The application deadline is October 20. Applications are available in the Office of Student Life, Academic Affairs Office, or the offices of Dr. Ellington (English), Dr. Johnson (English) and Dr. Weiland (Roney 212). Applications are due by 5pm on October 20, and students will be notified prior to registration so that they can enroll if accepted.
