JAMES DERISO SCHOLARSHIP

This memorial endowment was established by the family of James G. Deriso. Mr. Deriso, father of Mrs. Betty Pope, a former Chairperson of Georgia Southwestern Foundation's Board of Trustees, was a successful businessman in Sumter County. Consideration is given to participation and leadership in campus activities and extracurricular activities. The scholarship criteria requires recipients to be junior or senior status, accepted into the School of Business, with a GPA of 3.0, and no more than one grade of "C" in upper division courses.

ROTARY/WILLIS SHIVER SCHOLARSHIP

Established by the Americus Rotary Club for members of Students in Free Enterprise, this scholarship honors the memory of a lifelong member, J. Willis Shiver, who started a successful business in Americus, Georgia which is continuing to flourish as a product of the American free enterprise system.

ROTARY/ E.H. KINNEBREW, SR. SCHOLARSHIP

WHEELER/PARKER SCHOLARSHIP

The Wheeler/Parker Scholarship was established by Jean and Wes Wheeler as an endowment to honor the Parker and Wheeler families. The criterion gives consideration to students who have financial need and meet admission standards. This scholarship will be awarded by the School of Business in odd years and the School of Nursing in even years.
