GSW presidential candidates named for on-campus interviews
Public forums held from 5:15 to 6 p.m. each day

AMERICUS--Georgia Southwestern State University's (GSW) Presidential Search and Advisory Committee (PSAC) recently announced the candidates scheduled for on-campus interviews and cordially invites members of the campus and community to a series of open forums.

Adjoining rooms 2410, 2413 and 2417 of the GSW Student Success Center will hold the forums scheduled for April 18 and 25-27, and the GSW Fine Arts Theater will be the site of the forums planned for April 19 and 20. Each session will be held from 5:15 to 6 p.m.

A list of the candidates and the dates of their visits is as follows:

- o Wednesday, April 18, Tina Anderson, Ed.D., president, Moultrie Technical College, Moultrie, Ga.
- o Thursday, April 19, Kaylene Gebert, Ph.D., executive vice president, Middle Tennessee State University, Murfreesboro, Tn.
- o Friday, April 20, Rosalind Fuse-Hall, J.D., executive assistant to the chancellor, North Carolina Central University, Durham, N.C.
- o Wednesday, April 25, Bill Berry, Ph.D., provost and senior vice president of Academic Affairs, Butler University, Indianapolis, In.
- o Thursday, April 26, Jeremy Brown, Ph.D., provost and vice president of Academic Affairs, State University of New York (SUNY), Canton
- o Friday, April 27, Jim Sherwood, Ph.D., special academic assistant to the executive vice chancellor and provost, University of California, Berkeley

“I am pleased to announce six presidential candidates who have been invited for campus visits,” said PSAC Chairman Sandra Daniel. “The process of candidate screening is very difficult and we need this to be a campus/community-wide effort.”

Be advised that the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia does not consider these candidates as “finalists.” This distinction will be made in part as a result of the on-campus interviews.
