Directions for Use

Instructors must fill out all areas down to the instructor signature line, including all course, student, and instructor information, as well as a description of the violation and the penalty imposed. Before filling the form with the Student Conduct Officer (Assistant Dean of Students), the faculty member should make an effort to contact the student, explain the situation, and obtain the student’s signature on the form. An instructor should use her or his discretion in determining when a sufficient effort has been made to contact the student, and not delay filing the form indefinitely while awaiting a student response. For online students who cannot meet with the instructor in person, a faxed copy of the original with student signature, or a course mail message expressing the student’s intentions regarding his or her right to a hearing may be attached to the form. Instructors should retain a photocopy of the form when it is complete, and forward the original to the Student Conduct Officer in the Office of Student Affairs.
