Verification of SNAP Benefits
(Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program)

Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding federal student aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you have provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this institutional verification document and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may be transmitted to the federal processor for corrections. You and a parent whose information was reported on the FAFSA (if applicable) must complete and sign this institutional verification form, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents (we may ask for additional information). If you have questions about verification, contact us as soon as possible so that any unnecessary delays can be avoided.
