“DOES MY VOICE MATTER?”

Why should I be involved in the local politics of my community? Why do I feel like my voice doesn’t carry much weight? What’s the point of protesting and activism? Does my vote really count?

Tuesday, March 3rd, 4:00 p.m. Carter I Lecture Hall

Panelists:

Jason Berggren, Assistant Professor of Political Science
Philip Szmedra, Associate Professor of Business Administration
Tonia Hughes, Senior Lecturer of Visual Arts
Laura Lee Bernstein, former Chief Administrative Officer for the City of Americus

About the Panorama Panel Series

Panorama provides GSW community members a platform to voice their views on both timely and timeless topics and events. Panorama fosters a richer understanding of important topics and events by encouraging civil discussion from a range of perspectives, thus contributing to an intellectually vigorous and socially aware campus community.
