

Questions to ask

- Who are the primary users of outcome assessment information?
- What types of decisions do they make?
- What questions must be answered to inform these decisions?
- What types of information are needed?
- How and from where should the information be collected?
- What is the best timing for getting the information?
- How will be the information be analyzed and interpreted?
- How will the information be used?