

NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN THE CREATION AND RESEARCH OF THE THEORY OF BIE-MODERNISM SINCE 2019

Shanghai Normal University Jianjiang Wang

The theory of Bie-modernism arose in 2014 and has developed its own system of categories and methodologies. Since the outbreak of Covid 19 epidemic, the theory of Bie-modernism has made new developments, giving rise to the theory of life equity, the theory of the first basis, the theory of the overall elevation of human civilization, the theory of modernity in aesthetics, and the theory of deep distinction, reaching a new stage of development.
